

Classic drama on the Rowley Mile

Ian Carnaby on the Guineas >> A20-21

START AGAIN

Turf Club asked to review procedures >> A2

>> 08.05.2010 - 14.05.2010 | Issue no. 9292 | €3.20 inc VAT £2.20 | Irish-owned. Irish-focused. World-class.

Tommy Brennan's hedges and I found myself on the ground as well!" Fellow competitor Fergal Nesbitt took pleasure in insisting, quite rightly, that under EI rules they had to present themselves to the doctor. Happily both were passed fit to resume the competition.

It was a good few days for Co Wexford young horse producer Clare Lambert, who after winning the CNC* five and six-year-old division at Glandoran, rounded off the week by announcing her engagement to Island Foxhounds' huntsman Mark Ollard.

Trek Ireland

ANYONE who met up with Americans Darley Newman and Julie Snyder as they trekked their way around Ireland last week may find themselves on television in the coming months as part of the Emmy-award winning Equitrekking series.

Broadcast on American television, Equitrekking is run by Darley, who, due to the high demand for riding holidays here, came over with travel agent Julie to check out some of the more popular destinations for their new holiday package offers.

The ladies first headed west to meet up with Willie Leahy for a gallop on the beach, before heading south to the Burren to join up with Galway & Clare Riding Adventures.

From there they travelled to Kerry and then to Mount Juliet before driving north again to visit their good friend Niall Connolly at Ravensdale Lodge, before topping off their week at Castle Leslie.

It was indeed a busy few days but their adventures are all blogged and can be found on equitrekking.com

On show

WELL-known photographer Edward O'Mahony is showing some of his work for the next two weeks in The Good Food Gallery in Kilcullen. This popular gourmet shop and cafe is the ideal spot to take time out, relax and enjoy some superb shots of horses, hounds and terriers. The photographs are custom-framed and ready to hang and would make an ideal

